AIG Announces Hinako Shibuno as an AIG Ambassador

TOKYO – June 20, 2024 – American International Group, Inc. (AIG) today announced that it has signed a sponsorship agreement with professional golfer and 2019 AIG Women’s Open Champion, Hinako Shibuno, as its newest AIG Ambassador.

AIG’s connection to Hinako dates back to 2019, when, in her first international tournament, her breakthrough victory and first major title coincided with AIG becoming the title sponsor of the AIG Women’s Open. Since that historic win, as the first Japanese player in over four decades to win a major golf tournament, Hinako has competed in every AIG Women’s Open to date, gaining a third-place finish in 2022. As she continues to set the standard by demonstrating her skills on the international golf circuit, she will participate for the first time as an AIG Ambassador in her appearance at the 2024 AIG Women’s Open at St Andrews – the home of golf – between August 21 and 25.

Hinako’s friendly and positive disposition both on and off the green has been an inspiration to people of all ages across Japan and around the world. Originally from Okayama Prefecture, she began her professional career in 2018 and rose to prominence as she took on the challenge of multiple international tournaments while always continuing to pursue growth and deliver excellence. AIG and Hinako's shared values and commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion are the foundations to this unique partnership.

"Our partnership embodies the strong ties between AIG and Hinako dating back to her fantastic international debut win in 2019 at the AIG Women's Open played at Woburn Golf Club. Her talent, integrity and commitment to leading by example makes her a wonderful AIG Ambassador in Japan and a role model for the next generation. I look forward to seeing Hinako represent AIG as an Ambassador both on and off the green," said James Nash, President and CEO, AIG General Insurance, AIG Japan Holdings.

"As the title sponsor of the AIG Women's Open, a tournament I feel strongly connected to, I am pleased to have my relationship with AIG come full circle and to have the opportunity to represent AIG as an Ambassador. This is an exciting opportunity for me to partner with a leading global insurance organization with a long history and a unique presence in the insurance market in Japan," said Hinako Shibuno.
